

Gary's Truck

The missing persons poster has everything you need to solve this one. The first part of the puzzle is looking for the number count of each number that appears in each row. Take that info and find the line with that many numbers. Use the number associated with that line. The first number will be 9.